Monitor and track how your MFPs are being used—and what it costs to use them—with SharpAccountant.

Analyze MFP Operating Costs and Device Productivity

With SharpAccountant, you can analyze printer usage by account code, device, function (copy, print, or scan). By tracking device usage, you can be sure that all MFPs are being used to their maximum efficiency. SharpAccountant allows you to develop cost profiles for each MFP, and allows you to budget for supplies and consumables more accurately. It also supports most RED-enabled Sharp MFPs and printers—so you get a comprehensive picture of each device—and its impact on your bottom line.

Generate Easy-to-Read Charts and Reports

The data collected by Sharp Accountant can be viewed in both numeric format and easy-to read graphs, so it's easy to analyze the information. Reports can be exported as CSV files or tab delimited files for the greatest compatibility with popular spreadsheet applications. For added convenience reports can also be e-mailed directly from Sharp Accountant.

SharpAccountant enables you to generate reports in both numeric and graphical formats.
